You [G] say it was this [C] morning when you [G] last saw your good [A] friend
[C] Lying on the pavement with the misery on his [D] brain
[G] Stoned on some new [C] potion he [G] found upon the [A] wall
[C] Of some unholy bathroom in [D] some ungodly hall
He [G] only had a [C] dollar to live on til next [G] Monday
But he [C] spent it all on comfort for his [D] mind
Did you [C] say you think he's [G] blind [G] [C] [G] [C] [G] [C] [G]

[G] Someone should call his [C] parents, a [G] sister or a [A] brother
And they'll [C] come and take him back home on a [D] bus
But he'll [G] always be a [C] problem to his [G] poor and puzzled [A] mother
And he'll [C] always be another one of [D] us
He [G] said he wanted [C] heaven but praying was too [G] slow
So he [C] bought a one way ticket on an airline made of [D] snow
Did you [C] say you saw your good friend flying [G] low [C]

Dying [G] slow [C]
flying [G] low [C] [G] [C]
